

A decision was made to move the province to Critical Level (Red) beginning Thursday, November 12. There are no changes for schools. We continue to follow the restricted orange level measures and programs which are currently in effect. Should there be any further changes we will advise.